

ROSETA FO DE 2 PUERTOS 1 SC/APC 86*86MM

MODELO TPB-02

OVERVIEW

A cost effective solution for protecting passive termination of a premise fibers. Fiber face box is injection molded with an integral fiber retention system allowing for quick installation plastic and a positive lock strain relief for most premise fiber cable. A compact wall-outlet providing an optical demarcation point for fiber-to-the-home applications. Installed in-side of customers' premise, the optical face plate provides physical protection for the transition between provider and customer.

FEATURES :

1. Standard 86*86*27mm dimension specifically suits family use in FTTH and FTTD.
2. The adapter towards down which avoids the laser beams into the eyes directly
3. Macro-diametered wrapping post in the box protects radically in a maximum way.
4. Connection Method: Fusion splicing/Mechanical Splicing/Drop cable fast connector socket.
5. The clasp design for the cover greatly makes the installation easier. It matches up with other A86 electronic devices.

MATERIAL: ABS

CAPACITY: 2 ports

